50X1-HUM

1. Schwerin: There were 25,000 Soviet troops, including the SMA, families, etc., in Schwerin on 3 November 1947. These troops consisted of tank, armored reconnaissance, infantry, and heavy artillery personnel, and were quartered in the barracks along the road to Ludwigslust and also in private billets. Apart from a Soviet Air Force detachment which served as liaison with the Air Force headquarters at Parchim, no SAF or Soviet Navy units were stationed in Schwerin.

2. Parchim (T-74): Three thousand Soviet troops, mainly Soviet Air Force personnel from Parchim Airfield, were stationed there on 3 November 1947. The remainder of the troops were SMA personnel and men from two MVD companies.

3. Ludwigslust (T-53): This town contained 4,000 Soviet troops on 3 November 1947. The figure is provisional only, as the regrouping of Soviet forces in the Ludwigslust area was no yet complete at that time.
